

James Suckling: 92/100

Lovely deep cassis nose showcasing delicate nuances of herbs and spices. Vibrantly youthful and fresh with a very satisfying interplay of ripe fruit and quite elegant, dry tannins. Long, clean finish. Excellent from here. Drink in 2021.

Wine Spectator (James Molesworth) : 90/100

A solid bolt of graphite drives the core of dark plum and blackberry fruit along, while hints of iron and ganache fill in on the finish. Very solid, with good energy in reserve. Best from 2018 through 2024.

The Château du Glana 2014, a blend of 56% Cabernet Sauvignon and 44% Merlot, has quite a racy, exuberant bouquet with red cherries and cassis fruit, though I would have preferred more control and delineation here. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly chewy tannin, plenty of sappy black fruit but feeling just a little abrupt on the finish. Not a bad Saint Julien overall and it may deserve a higher evaluation post-bottling.

Wine Chronicles (Panos Kakaviatos): 90/100

Lovely expression of Saint Julien, there is elegance yet there is power. One of my favorites from the Left Bank in this Grand Cercle tasting.

Decanter : 87/100

Well-extracted smooth fruit with good depth – finally a good Du Glana!

Drink: 2018-2026

Jeff Leve: 86-88/100

With coffee bean, plum and earth in the nose, this fresh, medium-bodied wine has a sweet, forward personality.

Yves Beck : 90/100

Rouge rubis aux reflets pourpres. Bouquet intense, complexe. Baies rouges, framboise, touche de réglisse et notes de menthe. En bouche l'attaque est fruitée et de bonne intensité. Le vin a du corps et des tanins en adéquation avec la structure. Un vin agréable, juteux et équilibré. 2018-2028.

En Magnum - Bettane & Desseauve : 14.5 // 88

Un vin plein, bon représentant du style saint-julien dans une vision assez puissante du cru.

Bernard Burtschy - Le Figaro: 15.5/20

Joli vin équilibré axé sur la fraîcheur, belles épices 3-8 ans.

La Revue du Vin de France : 14.5-15/20

Voilà un joli classique de l'appellation, avec un vin construit sur la fraîcheur du fruit et un côté digeste et accessible.
